

DADS WILL BE IN THE LIMELIGHT at the annual Fathers' Night program of the Orinda Nursery School Wednesday night. As one of the portions of the program, fathers will be queried on their role in the home and on dads in relation to child-care. Getting into the spirit for the program perhaps a bit facetiously, are, left to right, Tom Sibary, holding Mack Roth; Jim Denning, holding Bobby Denning; Betsy Lohse and Marge Roth.

Amblers Tour Southland With Exchange Student

Asked his impression of Southern California and Arizona today, David Carter, American Field Service Exchange Student at Acalanes, came back with "Joshua Trees! Joshua Trees, Saguaro Cactus and Deserts!" David had just returned from a 3000 mile tour with his American family, the Louis Amblers of 220 El Toyonal, Orinda.

In the typically American touring-by-car fashion they went through the winter sports area to "The World's Liveliest Ghost Town," Virginia City, marveling at the rake stage of its Opera House where so many famous people appeared. Skirting the impenetrable snow covered Sierras, arguing family-style as to which was Mt. Whitney, dropping down to Death Valley's Badwater, the Amblers showed their guest the mad gaiety of Las Vegas by night.

The engineering feat of Boulder Dam, the truly American history of Arizona's cliff dwellings and Casa Grande, the four story pueblo remains of an Indian culture that dates from the days of Christ, the desert that reminded this English lad who was born in Pakistan of his boyhood home, and the fertile fields of the vast irrigated lands all offered subjects for photography.

David with his movie camera generously loaned him by Orinda Rotary's president, Maynard Buehler, Babette and Smed Amblers with their Laudamat were crying, "Picture" as often as Pam Ambler asked, "Where are we?"

Dads Will Be Special Guests Wednesday Night

Orinda Nursery School dads who may be flattered, insulted, amused or just amazed to learn that there is any question about their role in family life are invited to attend the association's regular monthly meeting Wednesday.

The meeting will be in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church at 8 p.m.

The program, planned especially for the fathers, is a modification of the Annual Father's Panel held in previous years and will feature a film highlighting the importance of the father's role in the family.

Nursery school mothers, requested a repeat performance of the film for the fathers.

The film "Preface to a Life" is certain to stimulate comment and discussion by the fathers whether they are the type who hides behind the evening paper while mother copes, or the "heavy father" who "lays down the law," or the kind who is never home long enough to play any sort of role in the family.

Whatever the attitude, all fathers are invited to come and participate.

Young Carter's scholarship for a year's study in this country was provided by the Orinda Rotary Club. He is one of three A.F.S. exchange students now attending Acalanes, one of some 640 in the United States this year.

The American Field Service Club at Acalanes is selling shares in a "Share the Fare" plan to raise money to bring another such student to their school. Fifty cents per person will hasten this movement for international understanding.

An International Music and Dance program, April 22 at 3 p.m. at Acalanes is the A.F.S. Committee's plan for the same purpose.

Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Seven in Race For Supervisor

Seven candidates are vying for the post of county supervisor from the Second District.

They are Mrs. Stanley (Eunice) Koller of Crockett, David Comstock of Alamo, Edward M. Larmer of Lafayette, William R. Zion of Lafayette, C. R. Wallace of Danville, Harold Munknick of Lafayette and Mel Nielsen of Lafayette.

Mrs. Koller and Comstock filed their nomination papers at the county clerk's office in Martinez last Friday, the final day of the filing period.

Incumbent H. L. "Jack" Cummings of Crockett, whose term expires the end of this year, is not seeking reelection. He has been supervisor 24 years and chairman of the county board for almost six years.

If any one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast at the June 5 primary election, he is elected.

However, if no one candidate receives a majority at the primary, the two highest candidates will compete in a runoff at the general election November 6.

Parents Urged To Mail Forms

Parents are urged to fill out and return Orinda Union School District Summer School application forms as soon as possible to the Pine Grove School Summer School Principal Philip Lambert.

Delay in return of the cards will result in the cancellation of some classes due to the lack of student enrollment, stated Lambert.

The schedule of classes will not be available until the day of registration, June 22.

To complete this schedule it is imperative that the business reply cards mailed to all parents of the district with a brochure explaining the summer school be filled out and returned," Lambert concluded.

Voter Deadline For Registration To Be April 12

Rotarians Give Views on Club

Paul Pease, program chairman of the Orinda Rotary, called on Paul Slattery, Joseph Longacre and Rollin Moore to give a brief resume of reactions to membership in the Rotary group.

The trio, called upon Tuesday at the Willows, are the newest members of the service organization in Orinda. Slattery and Moore were admitted in November and Longacre in March.

Commuter Lot For Car Parking Planned by C of C

Proposed plans for a commuter parking lot in Orinda were discussed at the Orinda Chamber of Commerce meeting at the Willows noon Tuesday.

Horace Breed announced that the area under consideration was located off the proposed extension of Santa Maria Way west of the present Orinda Highway and just east of the proposed Orinda Village Bypass road.

The land is now owned by East Bay Municipal Utility District. Portion of the parking area would be under high tension lines of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

What the future plans of EBMUD are concerning the considered parcel of land is to be learned by the Chamber as soon as possible, it was pointed out. The site is located within 500 or 600 feet of the present Orinda Bus Shelter at the interchange.

John Ogden reported on the activities of the Merchants Committee and told the Chamber of Orinda Value Days May 3, 4 and 5. A letter will be sent out to all merchants of Orinda giving full details of Orinda Value Days.

Stan Allen, chairman of the Christmas Tree Planting Committee reported that he had checked with various nurseries concerning what type of tree should be planted at the planting area in the interchange. General opinion was, a cedar deadora would be a suitable type to use.

Chamber members recommended further study prior to the purchase of a Christmas tree for Orinda.

Burton-Alamo Cutoff Photos Will Be Studied

Aerial photos have been made of the general area being considered for the Burton-Alamo cutoff, and contour maps of the area are being prepared, County Public Works Director Victor Sauer disclosed yesterday.

This work is being done for the county by the firm of Hammon, Jensen and Wallen of Oakland.

"THE PURPOSE of this work is for us to study the aerial photos and contour maps in our office, so that we can examine possible alternate routes," Sauer explained.

"The matter will be under study by our department for some months," he continued.

Sauer said that the projected connection will extend from the Burton Station area to Alamo and would tie the future Shepherd Canyon Freeway to the Walnut Creek-to-Danville freeway.

"IT'S ONE of the major connections being planned, and will be geared to freeway specifications," he added.

"We won't be immediately drawing connection plans. First, we must get the project precise in our planning."

Board Turns Down Request For Session in Orinda

Public hearing before the Board of Supervisors on Pacific Intermountain Express Company's application for Administrative Office District rezoning of its 10.7-acre parcel at the Pine Grove will be held April 19 at 1:30 p.m. in the board chambers at the Hall of Records, Martinez.

The hearing was scheduled by the supervisors Tuesday, after they had received the County Planning Commission recommendation in favor of the rezoning.

The rezoning is sharply opposed by the Orinda Association, which had requested that the Board of Supervisors conduct a night hearing in Orinda.

THIS REQUEST was made by Mrs. Gladys Schwatka, attorney for the association, at the board meeting Tuesday. It also was made in an association letter, signed by President Mel Arighi.

The request was denied. On advice of Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker, Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings ruled that the board was required to transact its business at the Hall of Records.

Walker stated that the code under which supervisory boards function specifies that each such board adopt an ordinance designating a place in the county seat for transaction of business, and that the ordinance adopted by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors designates the board chambers in the Hall of Records, Martinez.

Orinda Trustees Form Citizens' Advisory Group

Board of Trustees of the Orinda School District formed the nucleus of a Citizens' Advisory Committee to evaluate the instructional program of the school district at the Monday night meeting of the board at the Pine Grove School.

Committee members named were Mrs. Thomas Mika, Gloriaetta School; Mrs. John W. Rieser, Sleepy Hollow School; Mrs. James Roberts, Del Rey School; Dr. Roger Stark, Pine Grove School and Jay M. Jacobus, Orinda School.

In other business, the board adopted a policy for non-certificated employees of the district. The policy includes such items as working hours, overtime pay, sick leave and leaves of absence.

Increases in salary from four and one-half cents to five cents were granted to the non-certificated employees also.

NINE TEACHERS were granted tenure by the District. They are: Keith Burnham, Anne Harworth, William Hester, Esther Johnson, Mary Kimball, Jean Richer, Ruth Sawyer, Rita Schubert and Eddie Woltz.

Ted Omsundsen, architect, discussed landscaping and site development schemes for the Pine Grove and Sleepy Hollow schools. Fees were also brought into the discussion.

The firm of Fischer and La Borde was hired by the board to complete an audit of the entire district.

Acalanes High School District notified the Orinda School trustees in a letter, that the Orinda District would have to furnish the money for another school bus. The board moved to place the item on next year's budget.

Local Red Cross Drive Hits 76% -- Still Going Up

Drive captains and workers were concentrating their efforts this week toward having all contributions to the Orinda Red Cross fund campaign turned in by today, Mrs. Richard T. Myer, Orinda area drive chairman, said yesterday.

Cash in hand as of Monday was $5323, Mrs. Myer reported. This was over 76 per cent of the $7000 Orinda quota.

Mrs. Myer asked persons who have not been contacted in the drive to send contributions to her at 7 Don Gabriel Way, Orinda, or to the Mt. Diablo Red Cross Chapter, 1395 Ygnacio Avenue, Walnut Creek, marked for credit to Orinda.

IN ADDITION to the community chairman, captains and workers previously listed, the following were announced by Mrs. Myer as captains serving under her:

Mrs. C. William Lance, Moraga townsite; Mrs. Carroll Kelley, Rheem Center.

"It's been a terrific job to try to canvass every home and business establishment personally," Mrs. Myer said.

"THE MORE THAN 300 volunteers have performed a wonderful service."

Mrs. Myer said that the Crossroads and Village business sections were covered by community workers.

Community chairmen are: Mrs. Joseph R. Longacre, southwest Orinda; Mrs. Calvin Hagstrom, southeast Orinda; Mrs. C. V. Scarich, northwest Orinda; Mrs. D. J. O'Connor, northeast Orinda.

"SUCCESS STORY"

The people of Orinda will be interested to know that on Thursday, April 12th at 7 p.m., our own East Bay Municipal Utility District will appear on the Richfield Oil Company's television program "Success Story." For the general public, this should prove to be a program both entertaining and informative. For the people of Orinda, it may prove most enlightening.

As the program name implies, this should be the story of our success and how we did it. The burning question, however, is this — will the people, the owners of the District, be bombarded with an expensive, well prepared, purposefully planned publicity barrage? Will we be spoon-fed with pre-digested, honey coated policy propaganda?

OR WILL the various spokesmen for the District take this priceless opportunity to explain some of the little known but vitally important facts about the policies and workings of this incredibly powerful, publicly owned body?

Will a representative of the Properties Division, for example, explain the policy that has permitted speculators to tie up hundreds of acres of public land for as much as five or ten years tax free yet could not make it possible for the community of Orinda to acquire the ten acres of public land needed for its future Civic Center?

Yes, the Pine Grove property, the outstanding ten acre landmark in the heart and center of our community was public land. AS PUBLIC land, could it not have been held for us indefinitely without hardship to the District or the other communities which it serves? As public land, could not the Pine Grove property have been made available to us without the senseless, ridiculous controversy that has split our community leaving in its wake broken friendships, dissension, distrust and a heart-breaking expenditure of time, effort, energy and money?

As a community, Orinda is unique because it has been practically surrounded, infiltrated and inundated by water district. Because EBMUD controlled the important public lands in the heart and center of our community as well as the hundreds of acres on the surrounding hillsides, must our present needs and future plans wait upon the pleasure of the five men who decide the policies and direct the doings of the District?

THE EAST BAY Municipal Utility District is not a water company but a service body owned by the million people of the East Bay who reside within the confines of the District.

It came into being at the will of the people in order to serve the people with one of the few absolute necessities of life—WATER. EBMUD is a publicly owned body that could, I believe, give the people (its owners) transportation, electricity, water and telephone service at cost but appears to me to be in practice a monopolistic, profit making business.

As an owner of the District and an observer at the bi-monthly board meetings it is, I think, high time for a change in emphasis from administration and the idea of profit to engineering and the ideal of service.

THE PINE GROVE

After reading in The Sun the recommendation of Thomas Heaton, director of planning, on the Pine Grove question it is plain to see that democracy has given away to Pie-ocracy in Contra Costa County.

When our paid consultant tells us their report "was not based on polls—it was made from a planning viewpoint." Pie-ocracy has certainly lulled the commission into a state of hypnosis and there is no more democracy in Contra Costa County's planning.

Let me explain. BEFORE PIE applied for rezoning our Planning Commission in the tentative master plan stated that the best use of the Pine Grove was for community facilities — the supervisors agreed. Over and over again the people of Orinda said "Yes we agree—the Pine Grove should be reserved for community use."

As late as February of this year 1952 against 1460 said "We still do not want the Pine Grove rezoned even though it be for a super-colossal office building."

Is it democracy to ignore a 3298-1460 protest of Orinda Home-owners against the rezoning of the Pine Grove? How can our Planning Commission set aside public policy and good zoning practices just for the sake of expediency?

HAROLD WISE presently employed by PIE, stated in his booklet "Planning for Growth," "The master plan will be effective to the degree that it recognizes and puts down on paper the feeling of the people towards their community and its future."

If our planning staff is not concerned with the feelings of the people, they ignore our polls, then why attempt a master plan for any community in Contra Costa County?

How does the Planning Commission suggest that we explain to our children this unbelievable setting aside of democratic principles?

Next 4 Years Crucial, Says William R. Zion

"The next four years will be crucial in deciding the future of this area and the welfare of its residents," William R. Zion, candidate for supervisor, declared yesterday.

"What the county government does now, and what it fails to do, in facing up to our most serious problems will leave a permanent stamp on things," Zion said. He added that "we are in the midst of a new kind of residential growth which cannot be satisfactorily guided by the old ways of local government."

"LEARNING FROM the errors of the past, I believe we can work out a basically sound future course for the county and its incorporated communities if we seize the opportunity now," he stated.

"This means bringing our county government and its services and tax structure up-to-date. It means doing what has to be done to get reliable, forward-looking planning. It means new standards for subdivisions, retail areas and the development of our communities generally."

"WE MUST HAVE, as soon as possible, a common understanding between each local area and the County Board of Supervisors, so that future growth fits into a pattern which will not place the helter-skelter development that has already taken place."

"This way, we can begin to move in directions that will lessen, instead of increasing, our difficulties in obtaining permanently desirable communities."

Arthur A. Pedersen, Orinda floriculture authority, has been appointed to the board of directors of the California Garden Show of Oakland, it was announced by Edward T. Foulkes, board president.

The 24th annual Garden Show, presented by California Spring Garden Show, Inc., will be staged as a fall edition this year, Foulkes declared. Show dates are September 21 through September 28.

Sponsors' preview night, established as a social highlight of Northern California for a quarter of a century, will be presented September 20 from 7 to 10 p.m.

Pedersen, a long-time floral devotee, is a director of the Orchard Society of California. As an exhibitor at the Garden Show for five years, he has won many blue ribbons.

He is a member of the Oakland Business Men's Garden Club.

Cancer Society Tells of Fund Monies Uses

The uses to which the American Cancer Society puts the funds it receives in its April county-wide appeal were described today by E. E. Matheson, Concord, treasurer of the Society's Contra Costa County branch.

"We feel that knowing where the money goes is the right of every contributor to the Cancer Crusade," Matheson said.

"According to a formula worked out nationally by the American Cancer Society, sixty per cent of all funds collected remain in the state in which the contribution is made," he said. "Two-thirds of this amount is retained by the local branch for programs of cancer service and education and the balance is used for activities of statewide scope."

"However, because California is such an important center of cancer research, 92.6 per cent of all funds raised in this state remain here to support cancer research projects in California laboratories."

Describing the community services in Contra Costa County, Matheson stated that the branch office maintains a loan closet of beds and other sickroom equipment for cancer patients. Transportation to treatment centers is another local service.

The local branch also helps sponsor the Contra Costa Tumor Board at the County Hospital which provides a consultative service to physicians and patients. In the educational program films and literature are provided to physicians, industrial groups and individuals. Medical speakers are available to groups and organizations through arrangement with the Contra Costa County Branch.

"It is our plan to extend our local services as soon as additional funds are available," Matheson said in closing. "We have the support of the April drive."

Approximately 6,000 volunteers are preparing for the intensive one-day residential campaign to be conducted Wednesday evening April 18. The plan calls for one worker for each fifteen homes in the local areas. In many communities, husband and wife teams have been organized to conduct the drive and act as solicitors.

Campaigns in business, special gifts, clubs and organizations and industrial departments have been underway since April 2 under the direction of James Dinwiddie, Lafayette; Dr. Jonas Schieder, Walnut Creek.

Through and arrangement with the Post Office department, donations may be addressed to CANCER, care of the local postmaster, and such gifts will be credited to the city in which they are received.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Renwick, Orinda area chairmen, announced the following husband and wife team appointments: Messrs. and Mesdames Douglas Adie, George Bauslaugh, J. C. Benjamin, Ralph Hickox, William Scherer, Russell Chaffin, Johnson Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Fenwick Cole and Captain and Mrs. W. H. Pickett.

'Spring Fling' Event to Result In Scholarships

The year's "Spring Fling," the benefit dance sponsored by the California Alumni Scholarship Committee for the Orinda area, will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday, April 20, in the Walnut Creek Holy Ghost Association Hall on Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek.

The organization raises funds for scholarships to be awarded graduating seniors from within the Alacalanes, Mt. Diablo and San Ramon districts. According to Chairman Donald Reichert, Lafayette, the committee hopes through this dance to keep pace with increasing high school enrollment by financing several additional scholarships this year.

With over 100 sponsors and a popular local band, the affair promises to be a gala evening for general chairman of the event, alumni and friends of the university and committee chairman, university. Dr. Arthur Lundblad, Orinda, Dick David, Lafayette, tickets; Ben Dykes, Alamo, promotion; Bill Zion, Lafayette, publicity; Marian Everett, Orinda, and Grete Egan, Walnut Creek, decorations.

Tickets at $1 per person may be obtained from them and from the committee members, including Mel Arghill, Orinda; Pat Newell and Stan Walgren, Lafayette; Laura Odell and Kathryn Taylor, Walnut Creek; Margaret Harper, Danville; Art Bloom and Bobbie Lytle, Pleasant Hill, and George Nielsen, Paul Stoner and Les William, Concord.

Suburbia Scribblings

Eggshells good for garden soil

EASTER NOTES . . . Orinda children, newly garbed and shiny-shoed, came home from church last Sunday with Mom and Daddy to find that Peter Cottontail and his family had run rampant in the Orinda hills.

The eggs that WEREN'T found, or were dropped, or were stepped on, or were still semi-boiled, will turn up this week in the new flower bed, on the patio, along the walks, in the flower pot! The green paper grass graces the floors throughout the house and will still be turning up in corners and carpets for weeks to come.

By now, the hard-boiled egg supply has been depleted and Cottontail's colored creations have been transformed into egg sandwiches, stuffed eggs, creamed eggs, curried eggs, eggscetera. Protein? We've had it. And if the kids promise to brush after each bite with Brisk, we'll confine our eggs to candied ones next year. For obvious reasons, they are done away with faster and not half the muss and fuss.

EASTER EGG HUNTS . . . the timely tradition, a delightful experience for the strawbaked-set and an enchanting spectacle for the adult onlookers. The contrast of the littlest ones arriving for the hunt in their best pressed flannels, starched pinafores and petticoats, hairbows in place and faces clean and rosy with anticipation. Then the heart-stirring sight of the same darlings, now sticky-fingered, tear-eyed, in torn and grass-stained clothes ready to retire home with their loot.

Scrambled eggs scrambled children

Jane Shutt, Co-Chrmnd. Foothill Branch's 8th annual hunt at the Pied. Community Center and reported that an adorable lot of Lilliputians assembled in their Easter Best . . . While the Piedmont Highlanders played their bagpipes, the children clutched brown paper bags glamorized w/handpainted bunnies to search out the eggs on the well-kept rug of lawn.

In the crowd w/their offspring . . . Dee Seifert, Peggy Beckett, Dorothy Williams, Yvonne Meyer, Connie Miller.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB Easter Sunday . . . A marvelous Magician pulled real live rabbits out of the air . . . esp. fascinating to the George Merriam's son Ricky and Bob Hampton, young son of the Robert Hamptons of Sleepy Hollow. Around the greens, Caroline Read and Fran Connolly busy Co-Chairmaning the day's events.

Placing in races, Michele Abbes, dgthr. of the Ernest Abbes, coming in first w/Clay Felchlin, the Jim Felchlin's lass, running a close second. Jim Read MCing on the fairway . . . Betty Bergen w/her two young ladies and the Edward Maloney's w/son Terry. Mother Bunnies assisting in the fun, Rita Frost, Sally Kirsch, Betty Campbell and Marilynne Hampton.

Some of the Easter Week travelers . . . The Jack Reillys and their children, Dottie, Ann, and Johnny, to Phoenix for fun and sun. The Jim Winfrees took sons, Jim, Mike and Tommy to the sands at Seabright on the ocean.

DID IT PERTURBIA, disturbia, no write-up on Absurdia? Well, there was one, and we wrote it, but the mouse who cubbyholes at The Sun must have picked out our copy for his new spring nest.

Suburbia applauds absurdia jr.

Lack of space herewith shortens the loud praises echoed by all who attended the the versatile variety show staged by students and faculty members of the five Orinda Schools at the Pine Grove. The one regret about the jr. sized Absurdia—that it didn't last another 90-minutes!

Participating pupils who sang and played all stayed on pitch and looked pretty and proud doing it . . . Marvin Thrupp casually doffed his coat on stage to don a turtle-neck sweater . . . the better to personify Billy Bigelow of CAROUSEL fame in a stirring "Soliloquy." . . . Gerald Meeder, musical instrument instructor, made his violin sound just like a "Hot Canary" in the playing of the popular tune, same name.

Miss Winifred May brought down the house w/her wonderful pantomimes and the audience would have had her encoring all evening had time stood still. Miss Sara Sabelman strummed her guitar to accompany her recess-time "troubadours" who sang a haunting African folk song.

To the accompaniment of a drumbeat, Sleepy Hollow teachers did a Dr. Seuss-type song in syncretized chant about a little boy who wasn't satisfied w/the A-Z alphabet . . . Orinda faculty members did a humorous skit about the chaos and confusion that exists in the School Secretary's office . . . Frank Isola, (who MCed the show) Ted Boyce and Margaret Rathert did a repeat number from last Absurdia, a witty ditty w/lyrics laughable written by Miss Rathert to the tune of "Heaven Can Wait."

People are still talking about it and hope a king-sized version of Orinda's own ABSURDIA isn't too far away.

Orindans take bridge seriously

The Timothy Colvins are home from Palm Springs and the Sid Kroffts are due back soon from their Fiesta Siesta stay in Mexico. The C. Frederik Brevetts of Chas. Hill Rd. had a mid-March trip to Mexico and esp. enjoyed Acapulco. The Brevetts, by the way, moved here from the East about a yr. ago and like the rest of us, have succumbed completely to this special spot of suburbia. Both Mr. Brevett, a Hollander, and Mrs. Brevett, Viennese, are avid bridge players in case you're looking for some stiff cardtable competition!

SPEAKING OF SERIOUS BRIDGE, if you want to add even more tricks to your bagful of bridge techniques, a series for Advanced players starts Monday, 1-3, at the home of Mrs. Nels Hamburg, 10 Katrina Court. Call Fran Sutfide at CL 4-2626 for further info. Sponsored by Lombardy Branch, C.H.

Branch borrowers last month totaled 2032, as against 1145 for March, 1955.

Comstock Blasts Rezoning Ruling For Pine Grove

David A. Comstock, Second District supervisorial candidate, this week condemned the decision of the County Planning Commission to approve rezoning the Orinda Pine Grove as "one more in a series of outrages against sound planning."

Comstock, an Alamo artist and advertising and newspaper man, said the move was "capitulation to a deliberate and planned invasion of the residential communities, designed to create a precedent for future forays."

"PIE HAD its choice of several other locations," he said, "but instead elected to seize the only remaining logical site for an Orinda community center. Aided and abetted by EBMUD, from which it had acquired the land, the trucking firm exerted every bit of political and public relations pressure at its disposal and was successful, despite the 2-1 opposition of Orinda residents whose approval PIE had sought."

Comstock said that he would not run his campaign on the basis of selecting non-controversial issues, but would state his position frankly on every matter affecting the office of supervisor.

"THE PEOPLE have a right to know where I stand, and I intend to make my platform clear to all the voters; I shall not campaign upon the basis of a different program for each audience," he stated.

"The question of rezoning the Pine Grove for commercial use is one not merely of significance to Orinda residents; it stands as a warning to every other community that big money talks louder to the present county administration than the needs and desires of thousands of homeowners. The concept of democratic government has all but disappeared in Contra Costa County. I ask the support of every citizen who wishes to put government back in the hands of the people."

State Unit Gets Suggestions For Hunting Rules

Recommendations for 1956 hunting regulations will be heard by the Fish and Game Commission at 9 a.m. today in the State Department of Employment Building, Sacramento.

Recommendations to be made by the Department of Fish and Game already have been made public. Other suggestions from organized sportsmen, other groups and the general public will be heard.

The commission will announce its tentative determinations early in May. On May 25 in Los Angeles the commission will hear objections to and discussion of these determinations, and then adopt final orders for the 1956 hunting season.

So that the entire day today can be devoted to hunting regulations matters, the commission took up routine monthly business yesterday.

Class in Folk Dance May Mean New Hobby For You

By RUTH McRAHAN

A folk dance class for beginners will start next Monday at Acalanes High School. The class will meet from 8 until 10 p.m. Glenn and Reva Ward will be the instructors.

Due to the fact that folk dancing has been removed from the adult education program by the state, it has become a tuition class under the county in the adult education program of Acalanes High School.

The tuition charge is based on the number of people enrolled in the class. The larger the enrollment, the smaller the fee. This means that the charge could be as low as $5 or less per couple for a semester.

FOLK DANCING is a wonderfully satisfying hobby. Many people have the idea folk dancing is very strenuous. It is as strenuous or as active as you wish it to be.

At first you might have a few sore muscles, just as when you start gardening or any other activity that uses muscles. But you soon get over that.

Many of the dances are not as tiring as garden chores or household duties. If for some physical reason, one deems a dance too much for him, he need not participate. Since the moderate dancers are in the majority, most students will be able to learn many fascinating dances.

SOME OF THE DANCES taught are very old, such as Misi-elrou a Greek dance, over 200 years old.

The majority of newer dances were composed after deep research, and the steps are as authentic as are those of the older dances. You will learn polkas, schottisches, waltzes and tangoes and other types of dances too numerous to mention here.

Part of the evening will be devoted to square dancing, which is one of America's contributions to the long list of folk dances to be learned. Squares are called by both Glenn and Reva Ward.

THOSE INTERESTED in starting a new hobby, one in which both husband and wife can participate, may enroll immediately. Thus you will gain an idea as to the cost the first night you attend class.

Acalanes Sports Equipment Stolen

Two hundred dollars worth of baseball equipment was stolen from Acalanes High School sometime over the Easter Holidays, according to the Sheriff's office.

The boys' gym storage room located on the northern edge of the campus was broken into and the contents of a locker containing five dozen new baseballs, two dozen new bats, one shin guard, and 11 new baseball caps were taken. Loss is estimated by school officials at approximately $200.

Five other lockers in the storage room were left untouched. They contained football, track, and basketball equipment. Sheriff's Deputy Tiescher, while investigating the case was told by David Stewart, dean of boys at Acalanes, anyone who was familiar with the school would have had an easy time breaking in.

The theft was first discovered by athletic instructors on Monday and reported to the Sheriff's office late Wednesday.

The case is being further investigated by the sheriff's office.

Robert Lawrence Music Lecturer

Robert Lawrence, well-known music critic and author, will lecture on "The Musical Stage Today" on Monday evening in the Berkeley Little Theater at 8:30 p.m. The lecture is the first of the new season's membership benefits sponsored by the San Francisco Symphony Foundation.

Lawrence has achieved a nationwide audience as moderator of the Metropolitan Opera Quiz, an intermission feature of the weekly broadcasts from the New York opera house. Born in New York, he received his master's degree at Columbia University.

Ling and Sing Split-up Act

Ling and Sing, those hep Siamese cats owned by the Elbert Waynes, have split up their act. Seems Sing went and cultivated a taste for squab and let it get so out of hand that he was dining high on the hog to a point where he was no longer a Siamese cat, but just that these particular squab were the pigeons of other than Sing's owners.

While Sing was munching pigeon drumsticks here in Orinda, away over in Sausalito another Siamese cat (related through cousins) was stirring up his own trouble by forcing his affections upon an unreciprocative neighbor who had no appreciation of his adornment.

In fact, Tom had made himself very unpopular over the fence and since he is the surviving member of the Tom and Jerry act (Jerry having met a mysterious and untimely end some months ago) to assure his future as well as Sing's the owners of the felines got together and decided to swap cats.

Now Sing is settled in Tom's castle in Sausalito where he is on a diet sans squab and Tom is purring his transferred affection to Ling here in Orinda where as yet he is acceptable to the neighbors . . . and it is hoped that squab, neighbors and cats will live happily hereafter.

Eunice Koller Stresses Youth Education Work
Accent on youth and a return to more direct contact between the supervisor and his constituents were stressed yesterday as preliminary basis for the campaign of Mrs. Eunice Koller of Crockett for the Second District supervisorial post, to be vacated January 1 by Crockett's H. L. "Jack" Cummings.
County harmony and planning for the inevitable further expansion of Contra Costa County was also emphasized by Mrs. Koller. Mrs. Koller filed her qualifying papers last Friday. She is the second woman in county history to vie for the post of supervisor. The first was Mrs. Wanda Muir Hanna, also of Crockett, who ran in 1920 and was defeated by the then political giant, Judge Casey. "In the 19 years that I have lived in the Second Supervisorial District of Contra Costa County I have taken an actual part in the dynamic development which has been and still is taking place," Mrs. Koller said.
"IT IS BECOMING more and more apparent that the fast-developing Bay Area will continue to seek relief and expansion in this county. We must become a harmonious group of citizens working together for the common good in order to meet this expansion."
Mrs. Koller called attention to the fact that at one time Contra Costa supervisors held offices in various parts of their districts on certain specified days, when all citizens could bring their problems and criticisms to the supervisor.
"I believe that this custom should be re-established," she said, "in order that the supervisor may have a closer contact with the people and their problems."
Mrs. Koller, who holds a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing education and public health from the University of Washington as well as being the only woman in California to hold a civil engineering contract license, has been active in community service and welfare work since taking up residence in Crockett in 1937. She has also devoted much time to youth welfare and educational work.
"We must never forget," Mrs. Koller said, "that the continued strength of our great country lies in how well we prepare our youth to become citizens. In our over-all planning we must never lose sight of what I believe to be one of a supervisor's most important duties: the providing of proper facilities for the education and welfare of our children."
School boards and school districts which have been established by the Board of Supervisors have the direct responsibility of maintaining educational standards. But it is within the province of the Board of Supervisors to see that areas are provided in the State which are now taking place and those to come for the building of new schools and new recreational facilities. Every child in Contra Costa County must have the best possible opportunity for education and recreation."
Mrs. Koller said she plans an individualistic "be-coming obligated to no person or organization which might in any way hamper her efforts for the good of the district as a whole."

Quinney, Koch Will Meet Demos Thursday Night
Dr. H. R. Quinney, Democratic candidate for Congress from the 6th District, and Russell Koch, Democratic candidate for the Assembly from the 10th District, will be in Lafayette to meet Democrats from this area next Thursday evening, according to Neil Falconer, president of the Lafayette Democratic Club.
The gathering will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dow Votaw, 3634 Happy Valley Road, at 8:30 p.m.
The candidates will speak on the leading issues of their respective campaigns.
Quinney and Koch were both endorsed by the 374-delegate primary endorsing convention March 10 in Martinez.
Dr. Quinney is a long-time resident of Solano County and a civic leader of Vallejo. He is a member of the three-county executive board of the Boy Scouts of America and has served as chairman of the Vallejo Housing Authority and the Solano County March of Dimes. He was the first "Man of the Year" ever named for Vallejo.
Koch is a practicing attorney from Pleasant Hill.
Falconer announced that the club is preparing for a large turnout of interested Democrats. The Votaw residence is one block off Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Anyone wishing further information may call Falconer, AT 3-6229, or Sharon Gittlesohn, membership chairman, AT 4-4226.

Valley Art Center Plans 'Birdies, Beasties, Things'
This Sunday afternoon "Birdies, Beasties, and Finny Things" will be on exhibit by the Valley Art Center.
An afternoon party will be a family affair, with children, parents, and the public invited, according to Mrs. Edward Jacobsen of the Artists Market Committee.
The gallery, at 3420 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, will be open from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., with refreshments for visitors.
"BIRDIES, BEASTIES, and Finny Things" will be seen this month and next in a collection of sculpture pieces and paintings by west coast artists; works selected especially for their diversity of expression. All of them depict animals, fish or birds.
Among the painters exhibiting will be David Lemon of Berkeley, whose lively semi-abstract works display the influence of years in Mexico; and Ugo Graziotti, featured in the American Artist as a modern "old master," a recent import from Italy and now instructing in San Francisco.
Humor will be found in Alton Raible's fabulously ironic birds. Mr. Raible is an instructor at the California College of Arts and Crafts.
TWO SCULPTRESSES from Central Contra Costa County, Kisa Beek of Danville, and Helen Rowland Kilpatrick of Orinda, will both be represented with stone and cast animals, similar to those enjoyed by visitors to the annual Art and Garden shows.
On exhibit at the First Savings and Loan in Walnut Creek are paintings by Peter Blos, whose handsome portraits of Navajos and other fine figure studies have brought him many prizes in western exhibits. Mr. Blos was born and trained in Bavaria, but has made his home in Oakland for many years.

Utah Officer Speaks for Limited Industry in Moraga
As yet without details, a new plan for the development of some 5000 acres in Moraga into a community with some industrial land, and probably several hundred acres of commercial zoning is being prepared.
It will involve construction over a 10 year period, Edmund W. Littlefield, executive vice president of Utah Construction Company, and also president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce told members of the Contra Costa Development Association last week.
The diagrams are in the hands of Harland Bartholomew and Associates, described by Littlefield as "an outstanding planning authority."
WITHOUT OFFERING exact descriptions, Littlefield assured listeners that a development, much like that presented to the County Planning Commission last year, is necessary to the financial well-being of Contra Costans, who he said will experience a 220 per cent expansion in their community in the next 35 years.
The older plan, opposed by many improvement associations, called for development of five per cent of the 5000 acres as industrial land, and for 285 acres to be set aside for commercial purposes. There was to be more than 1500 acres in lots under half-acre size.
The greatest fear of landholders, lowered property values due to industry, is needless in this Littlefield asserted, adding that more industry will help carry the burden of future high taxes.
HE SAID, "Currently your local government costs $35 millions a year. Within 40 years it will cost 100 millions. The problem is how are you going to raise that $100 million, or that $65 million additional annual revenue?"
"Today industry pays approximately 55 per cent of the cost of your local government. Your 346,000 residents pay the other 45 per cent, $16 millions or if you prefer, $46 a year for each man, woman and child in the county."
"We feel that such a carefully controlled industrial park would be a credit to the community."
"It would give many Moraga residents an opportunity to earn their livelihood in the area in which they live."
"It would reduce the burden of providing additional traffic and transit facilities. It would contribute in a major way to a reduction in the residential tax load, and our studies indicate that such a development might reduce the tax bill of the average home owner some $9 a month over what he would have to pay if the area were developed entirely in residences."
"Areas originally zoned for commercial, but which are found not to be needed for that purpose, can always be rezoned for residential use."
"YOU KNOW AS well as I do that Contra Costa County stands in the path of a growth that will see its population virtually double in the next 15 years and treble in the next 35 years. Even the lowest projection of population growth contemplates an increase of 220 per cent over a 35 year period."
"Contrast this if you will with the projections of population for San Francisco, where the most optimistic estimates foresee a change of 24 per cent."
"Contra Costa County today is on the verge of growth almost rivaling that experienced by Los Angeles in the past decade—and it behooves us all to do some positive, forward-looking planning of a magnitude to match the problem."
"Within a very few years Contra Costa County can confidently expect to cope with the problems caused by a population that will be larger than that of San Francisco today or San Francisco tomorrow."
"... What is it that Utah

Red Cross Drive Extending Into April; $18,000 Given
The drive for Red Cross funds to maintain Mt. Diablo Chapter for the coming year, outstanding success has been achieved in some areas while in others the drive has fallen considerably below what was expected, according to Chairman Robert Schroder.
In order to attain the quota of $20,000 the drive will, of necessity, be extended into April, he said.
A TOTAL of $18,119.39, or 62 per cent of the goal, has been raised by scores of workers.
Walnut Creek remains the low point with 34 per cent raised during the month of March. This apparently is due to lack of volunteer workers rather than lack of desire to contribute, fund drive officials have ascertained.
Substantial increases were noted in Orinda and Lafayette during the past week.
Amount raised and percentages of quotas are as follows: Ygnacio Valley, $699.55 and 200 per cent; Diablo, $779.25 and 156 per cent; Alamo, $1,667.40 and 140 per cent; Danville, $2,026.19 and 127 per cent; Lafayette, $4,764.92 and 68 per cent; Orinda, $4,757.03 and 68 per cent; Sun Valley, $372.92 and 62 per cent; Pleasant Hill, $479.68 and 48 per cent; Walnut Creek, $2,564.40 and 34 per cent.

Shipmates Meet For Potluck Fete

The Shipmates, a married couple's group of the Community Church met for a potluck supper last week and then divided into work teams to build new benches for the Sunday school room and to sand, putty and paint cabinets in the minister's new study.

The room will be painted, the drapes hung and the furniture arranged this week. All that is lacking now is a 9 by 12 rug to blend with the pale green walls, beige drapes and walnut furniture.

Mr. Blossom, the minister, will be established in his new study by this weekend. The phone number remains the same, CL 4-5201. Location of the new study is at the northwest corner of the building in back of the chapel, across the hall from the Livingston Room.

Funds for the project were furnished by members of the congregation and by the Woman's Guild.

Dr. Brico visited Dr. Sibelius in Finland last year and with Dr. Schweitzer in Africa where she took lessons on the organ.

A course for volunteer radiological monitors will be sponsored by the Acalanes Adult Education Program and the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense. This will begin on April 16 at Acalanes High School at 7:30 p.m.

Any local residents 18 years or older interested in this type of training are urged to attend the course. Pre-class registrations can be made at Walnut Creek, Lafayette, and Moraga Fire Departments, Moraga Post Office, Acalanes Adult School Office, and the County Civil Defense Office. The State of California Civil Defense Radiological Service has designated the Walnut Creek-Lafayette area as a desirable area to station a Radiological Monitoring Trailer.

These trailers are completely equipped with monitoring instruments, two-way radio, handie-talkies, and other personnel items. A trailer will be furnished by the State for local use when sufficient persons in the Walnut Creek area have been trained in the use of the radiological monitoring and communications equipment.

A recent year-long study of up-Bay Area showed that a portion per strata wind patterns in the of Contra Costa County lay in the path of potential radio-active fallout from a thermo-nuclear burst near San Francisco Bay some 69 per cent of the time. This study along with the State OCD recommendations emphasize the urgency for local participation in this part of the county.

Rex Story, Famous Clown to Appear At Clarks Market

The international comedy sensation, Rex Story, baseball's best dressed man and baseball's worst juggler, will appear at Clark's Market, Rheem Center, tomorrow at 1 p.m.

Story has been billed by the Sydney Bulletin as the world's fastest, zaniest juggler from London. The New York Telegram said "Funny... Mr. Story was a riot."

Story is one of America's old-time music hall jugglers and has played some of the finest fairs in the nation. He was the first to introduce comedy into the American baseball parks.

His first appearance at Clark's was yesterday afternoon.

In addition to Story, Jack Clark, co-owner of Clark's Market, announced Treasure Chest Days at Rheem Center.

The treasure chest with all the prizes will be on display at Center Hardware. Keys will be distributed at Rheem Center Stores. Keys are available with no purchase necessary.

Any person with a key fitting the lock becomes the winner of any of hundreds of valuable prizes, stated Clark. Treasure Chest Days started Wednesday and will continue for three weeks at the Center.

The sale opened Monday and will continue to April 14; donations of $1 each are being sought. Meanwhile, Mrs. Ray L. Registration Ends Parent Education For 8th Graders At Acalanes High Acalanes High School counselors and teachers have completed registration and programs for eighth grade Stanley School, Lafayette, pupils.

Counselors and teachers met recently with both parents and students to work out ninth year high school course programs for 290 graduating Stanley School pupils.

Registration and programming was preceded with prognosis tests for the eighth graders. The tests were used to help counsel students into the proper facets of the high school curriculum.

Programming for next year of students now attending Acalanes has also been completed. Alex Winchester, head of the Don counseling department, reports that Acalanes juniors will be given aptitude tests at the end of this month to help determine each student's academic strengths and weaknesses so that individual assistance may be given next year to these students in the academic areas where they need help most.

Winchester also revealed that college representatives from "nearly every college in the state and many of the nation's universities," have spoken to and interviewed Acalanes seniors contemplating college after high school graduation in June.

Wrap 'em Right Says Postmaster

The care applied to the selection of a gift for a distant loved one should not be lost in its preparation for mailing, Postmaster H. T. "Doc" Crandell said today.

The postmaster directed his suggestions primarily at what he described as occasional mailers, declaring that business houses know the value of proper packaging.

"When it is realized what may happen to an improperly prepared parcel as it mingles with heavier packages, it is no wonder that the parcel post window clerk sometimes finds it necessary to refuse to accept a package," Postmaster Crandell said.

Parcels which come apart in transit cause unnecessary delay and possible loss or damage to the contents, he explained.

Postmaster Crandell urged prospective mailers to consult any parcel post window clerk for advice on how to prepare a package for the mails and for details on regulations.

He listed the following general suggestions: Use a sturdy box, use stuffing to prevent rattling and to help prevent crushing, use strong cords, enclose name and heavy wrapping paper, use address for delivery and your return address inside the package, print name and address for delivery and your return address clearly and completely on the outside.

Enclose a letter or message if you wish but write "first class mail enclosed" on the outside of the package and affix postage for the letter in addition to the parcel post charge.

Jay-Cee Coupons Are Now on Sale

Residents of the Lafayette area will be able to acquire entertainment coupon books all day tomorrow at the Safeway and Lafieta parking areas, according to Jim Herrick, coupon campaign chairman for the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The distribution of these books for a donation of $1.00 each is a yearly event sponsored by the local JayCee group to build up its funds for civic projects and activities during the year.

The general public is invited by the JayCees to purchase the books which entitles an individual to price advantages at Peluso's Restaurant in Oakland; Motor-In Drive-In Theater in Pleasant Hill; Pioneer Village in Lafayette; Freddie's Pizzeria in Lafayette; Glen's Miniature Golf, Walnut Creek; Monument Bowl in Pleasant Hill and the Orchard Nursery of Lafayette.

Herrick expressed the gratitude of the JayCees to the merchants who have cooperated generously with their donations of meals, services and products.

Assisting Herrick on the committee are JayCee members: Don Weeks, Hans Beetz, Eric Neilsen, Bill Records, Ted Baran, John Kennedy and Jim Dana.

Pat Dyer, 3369 Dyer Drive, Lafayette, is the winner of a 9x12 Alden Miracle Tex Rug and Pad given by Mortensen's of Lafayette.

Why Not All Year Cleanup Drive?

As fresh as the springtime, as heartening as soft breezes, is Orinda's current cleanup campaign.

With the theme of "A Wish to Keep Orinda Clean," the anti-litter drive which started here this week and will continue all month has the active support and participation of various groups.

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce, the Orinda Garden Club, the Orinda Mothers Club, the Lions Club, the Rotary Club and the Cub Scouts are all united in this community-wide effort.

Such cooperation is most encouraging. It is a splendid example of the type of civic consciousness which makes Orinda the wonderful community it is.

In fact, the idea of the anti-litter campaign is so eminently worth-while that it should be followed through all year 'round.

Why couldn't the impetus of the current campaign continue for the entire 12 months of the year, so that cleaning up Orinda would be a steady and effective effort?

In that way, the start given by the present drive would develop logically and consistently — and the whole community of Orinda would benefit.

One of the paradoxes of cleanup campaigns in general is that we're all inclined to agree that people should keep things neat and clean — but that we rarely consider ourselves as among those who need education in this matter.

After all, we maintain orderliness and neatness in our daily lives, we tell ourselves; maybe we even tell that to others.

The truth, of course, is that all of us are guilty, at times, of spreading litter, in one form or another. And we all have an equal responsibility for seeing that the community is kept attractive and clean.

So let's all pitch in and make the anti-litter campaign of Orinda a real success — and let's continue these efforts for all 12 months of the year, every year.

What They Say The Largest Chore of All

Now that spring is here it's more or less a toss-up to run right out and start working on the yard, get that spring housecleaning done or just curl up and take a good long snooze.

The Sun's roving reporter this past week asked the question, "Has your family started its 'spring housecleaning' yet? If so, has it been a big job. If not, do you intend to go through with that chore this year?"

MRS. J. L. DOWLING, 6 Las Vegas Court, Orinda, answered, "We have house cleaning in mind. We've got to throw some old things out of the shed and lots of odds and ends around the house must be taken care of in the near future."

Mrs. Mary Little, 35 Underhill Road, Orinda, said, "Yes, we've started out but it seems to be a constant job. I guess I should stay with it all year long but I just seem to take care of the major housecleaning when I feel like it." MRS. WILLIAM P. HOBBS, 811 Tupper Lane, Lafayette, stated, "We're starting out our spring housecleaning by painting and papering the kitchen. The whole family is in on it even our two little helpers, four and two years old."

Mrs. James D. Raymond, 3292 Glenside Drive, Lafayette, answered, "I'm laughing because that's what we're doing just this minute. We have a lot of fun doing it each year, painting the fence and my husband is doing a wonderful job of fixing the brick path. Yes, it's good to get things fixed up during spring."

WILLIAM GARAVAGLIA of 71 Collins Drive, Pleasant Hill, admitted that the annual clean up hasn't started around his house, but assured that there is little to do since "we just completed interior decorating."

His only concern during the big task is waxing floors, for which they have a waxing machine.

"We are cleaning all the time, and whenever it needs it, so there isn't the usual annual job. My most disliked task, however, is washing. It never ends," said Mrs. T. M. Terry of 1251 El Curto Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

HER RANCH, TYPE home is wonderful, but the asphalt tile floors sometimes present a dirt-tracking-in problem," declares Mrs. Jack Wylie of 51 Norlan Drive, Walnut Creek.

"I could dust two or three times a day if I were overly fastidious, and we are on a ground level, and in come bits of leaf, bush and other things," she added.

Donald Oberg of 154 Beth Drive, Pleasant Hill, protested, "We are still recovering from the flood. The house became sort of a mess,

Beginning to Wake Up!

Preview Tea Thursday to Spotlight Art Pageant

An open-house preview tea sponsored by the Diablo Art Association will be held at the residence of Mrs. Ernest Anderson (Jenny) at 1501 Lucky Drive and Clayton Road in Concord, Thursday.

Purpose is to publicize the forthcoming Pageant of Art, a spring art show to be held in Walnut Creek, May 15-20.

The Pageant of Art, the first of its kind in Contra Costa County, will be an effort to show the extreme talent of the artists and craftsmen of our area, according to Mrs. Katy Madsen, exhibit chairman.

THERE WILL be paintings both in the Walnut Creek shops and on panels in the street. Also on display will be jewelry, weaving, pottery, glassblowing, art in action, music, folk dancing and the childrens art show.

It is the object of the Diablo Art Association to bring evidence to the public of the outstanding ability of the artists and craftsmen of this area, said Mrs. Madsen. Mrs. Marion Love is president of the Association.

Much hard work and organization has been accomplished. Exhibitors will be local high schools, adult education classes, College of Arts and Crafts, Contra Costa Junior College, Sayers Wood Carving School, the Contra Costa Camera Club, the Diablo with rushing in and out with things to be set out of the water's reach." The Oberg home is next to Walnut Creek, but they were lucky as the water stopped its advance short of the front door.

Letters to The Editor

"VOICES WERE IGNORED"

Dear Editor:

The recent decision of the Contra Costa Planning Commission to rezone the Pine Grove for an office building is an atrocity. The people of Orinda spoke loudly and clearly. Their voices were ignored completely.

Although our paid government officials at Martinez were supposed to look out for our interests, Orindans gave of their own time and energy to protect their personal investments in homes on which they are so highly taxed by the county.

This extra effort on the part of Orinda residents has failed momentarily.

Some people are saying, "What's the use? ... we fought the battle hard ... we fought it fairly and squarely ... yet we lost. Now all is lost because Orinda will not remain a residential community. Other large businesses are sure to petition to get in, now that PIE has cut the pattern with the Administrative Office District Ordinance, which was tailor-made for its purposes."

Citizens who have already invested their time and money in Orinda are also asking themselves:

"What possible voice can we have in running the future affairs of Orinda when neighbors of such giant proportions will live in our midst? Is incorporation the tool we have at hand? Is incorporation the only machinery that will give us a voice in government of our own community?"

CONSOLIDATED ELECTIONS

Dear Editor:

The Sun should campaign for consolidated elections. William Racine has a very good point in his letter (The Sun, March 30).

Does it take an act of Congress to change such a stupid law. The Sun has taken the lead in the past and surely should keep plugging on this waste of tax money.

WILLIAM GORDON

Waldo Watson is Drive Chairman

Waldo S. Watson, assistant vice-president and manager of the First Savings and Loan Association in Walnut Creek, has been appointed chairman of a fund raising campaign to be conducted by the Central Contra Costa Mental Health Association during National Mental Health Week, April 29 - May 5.

When he agreed to accept the post, Mr. Watson told chapter president, E. Walton Kirk, he was "deeply interested in the mental health of the community and concerned over the lack of public and private facilities to meet the ever rising need of the mentally ill."

Mr. Watson was a former director and treasurer of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center and is an active member of Rotary. He resides at 55 Bunce Meadows Drive, Alamo.

Weavers and the Contra Costa Gem and Mineral Society.

The preview tea will be open to the public from 1 to 5 p.m. Paintings and examples of crafts such as weaving, jewelry, pottery, etc. will be on display that afternoon.

This will be a tea to publicize the Pageant of Art and to show some of the beautiful work that will be displayed in Walnut Creek.

Hostesses will be Jenny Anderson, Emily Dascallos, Hazel Elting, Yvonne Herbert, Betty Beede, Betty Pleshe, Gertrude Phipps, Ila Snapp, Mary McConley and Faye Stimm, all of Concord.

Most of the art in the Pageant of Art will be for sale.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Vote today, vote every day!

For this I will be accused of "politics." (In fact, anything anyone on The Sun says or does from now until election time will be attributed to politics.)

However, Bill Zion, a candidate for supervisor, district 2, yesterday sent me some most interesting material on the subject we discussed last week. That is: Why can't governmental elections in this area be consolidated?

The number of elections being held here this spring is amazing — school trustees, bond issues, flood control, fire district, water districts, Little Master plan, city, and the county-state-federal elections. Sanitary district board elections will be in September and a sewer bond issue vote is also being planned. The general election is in November.

Last week W. A. Racine wrote an excellent letter proposing that elections be consolidated. Bill Gordon follows with a "second to the motion." Others have commented on it during the week.

Others interested in the problem

Bill Zion forwards both good and bad news on the subject. Last fall this idea was studied in some detail by members of the Contra Costa County Inter-governmental Conference, which is composed of representatives from city and county governments and many special districts. An Elections Study Committee was appointed, with Bill Zion as chairman.

The final report is printed below. Due to the position taken by County Clerk Walter Paasch, who would be the key official in any consolidations, no further study or action was taken. In addition, state legislation would be needed. Here is most of the report, issued last January:

Of the 70-odd questionnaires sent out, about half have been returned. The response has been best from schools and cities, though all types and functions of local governments are represented.

Elections cost money

1. COSTS: Great variation exists, even between similar jurisdictions. The highest reported figure was $6000 for Central Sanitary, the lowest was $400 for Port Costa School. A guess at the total cost would be $50,000-$100,000. Bond elections generally cost more than board elections, though this may have been the result of information activities. Administration and costs are shared between some elementary and high school districts. Printing is a major cost which consolidation would eliminate.

2. DATES: The law sets school and city — and apparently fire and sanitary district — elections all on separate days. City-school consolidation was suggested. It should be recognized that many jurisdictions have complete freedom to set annexation and bond election date, and that the timing of such elections may be of paramount local importance. Therefore, even though they make up a considerable portion of our elections, they may be beyond the reach of consolidation.

3. CONSOLIDATION: The date problem is dealt with above. Many jurisdictions expressed a desire for consolidation, as a means toward both increased voter participation and decreased costs. However, some schools felt their independence of other elections might be preferable politically. Presently EBMUD and the hospital districts may optionally consolidate with general elections and are doing so.

Who votes where?

The fact that a jurisdiction's boundaries do not often coincide with county precincts is a major obstacle. One district suggested that the problem could be solved by permitting all voters in a precinct partly within the district to vote in district elections. Though that may be of dubious constitutionality, there already appears to be some voting by non-residents of jurisdictions, due to the boundary confusion.

Another criticism of the present arrangement was that it requires voters to go to several different polling places, even when the elections are on the same day. This paragraph describes a situation more prevalent with smaller districts than with the larger ones where precincts can more easily be made to coincide with county precincts. The problem needs considerable study.

Recreation, and perhaps some other, districts are prevented from consolidating with general elections because their laws call for filing up to 20 days before the election. This does not allow enough time to get onto the county ballot, even though the elections are required to be held at the same time. Filing laws could be changed.

Note the small turn out

4. VOTER TURN-OUT: This ranged from 3% to 68%. The average appear to be 15-20%. Sanitary and school districts reported the lowest percentages, while cities were highest.

5. MISCELLANEOUS: The provision that no election need be held for uncontested fire and sanitary board positions was stated to be entirely satisfactory. It could be expanded.

When a single jurisdiction has several elections coming up at about the same time, they are usually consolidated with each other (for example, school trustees, tax rates and bonds).

It was suggested that when elementary, high school and junior college trustee elections are to be held at the same time (which often occurs), that a single notice and sample ballot, instead of three, would lower costs; and similarly, that then the voter be required to sign one roster, rather than three.

But ... says county clerk

A discussion with the County Clerk revealed that in his opinion: 1. The actual conduct of elections costs about the same, regardless of how they were handled. His office is already giving all the assistance he feels feasible, i.e. provision of voters lists, mailing of notices, etc.

2. Consolidation would greatly complicate the administration of elections, due to the many boundaries that would have to be accommodated in setting up precincts.

3. Consolidation would lengthen an already long ballot. That's the report.

What do you think?

The solution to multiplicity of elections is so important that inconvenience of our elected county clerk is not of paramount importance. There is no question that problems of boundaries, etc., are most difficult to solve. But they could be solved.

The county clerk's attitude is similar to that taken so often by other county officials. "We've done this or that a certain way for 50 years, so why change it now?" Don't they realize that this is no longer a cow county? This is one of the largest and most important counties in the state.

If consolidation of elections will increase the vote, save money, lessen confusion, it should be done.

The Dramateurs' production of heavy one, with so many scene changes and such a large cast. Saturday night to a very enthusiastic audience.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Throw that ol' gold Cad away

IF, BY ANY CHANCE you are still diving around in a solid gold Cadillac, for heaven's sake, throw the old thing away. It is passe. It is "old hat." It is to use a derogatory, automotive description—LAST YEAR'S MODEL!

According to the Motorama the new one has the opalescent shadings of the inside of an oyster shell and the upholstery is piped with pearls, so help me Hannah. In fact, a bemused hummingbird lost in this lush labyrinth of white brocade might well look at all those pearls, become neurotic thinking her friends had beaten her to it and already laid eggs in this matchless nesting location.

AND THEN there is the kitchen of tomorrow. You stand in the middle of same, hold the correct thought, push an occasional button (this latter procedure really shouldn't be necessary but progress in that particular phase of development has been a little slow) and bingo—roasts start cooking in transparent ovens—pre-fabricated salads hop the automotive serving cart just passing by and end up in the cooled buffet, there to remain in perfect condition until the company turns up—meantime the laundry selector is carefully sorting the shrinkables from the fadeables and synthetics.

We came home and held a thought over our kitchen of yesterday and nothing happened—nothing at all—maybe the budget got in the way.

Well anyway, country folk who turned up for party night at the Motorama were the Hi Hennings, Ronald Schatts, Ritchie Smiths, James Sharps, Robert Jurs, Campbell Ross, Frank Brunks, Thomas McGuire, Woodburn Lambs, John McFarlands, Howard Innans, ad infinitum.

General Bay Area news

ONE THING we pride ourselves on is our ability to get (by coercion, bribery or threat) certain local facets of general Bay Area news.

You have read in the other papers of the forthcoming Bunka Sai, a fascinating festival to start on April 28 with events of culture and beauty to stimulate interest in the Oakland Museum—BUT—did you know that the brochures sent out last Friday enclosing information and tickets for same cost only one cent to mail! Just get a permit from the Post Office, staple the flaps (not sure a good lick will do it) and arrange in stacks by area and weight and the P.O. does the rest.

Local ladies sending the brochures to country folks are Mesdames Chauncey Pond, Dwight Skaggs, Carl Daily, Carl Paulding, Paul Ayres, John Athanson, Thomas McGuire, Evans Holabird, Raymond Tolles, Harry John Dutton, Frank Malley, Floyd Kerr, Henry Wynne, Paul Stafford, James Freeman and James Sharp.

Now if you haven't received yours it isn't because they think you aren't interested in things of culture and beauty. It is because they were so busy playing with the stapling machine they confiscated from somebody's son that they missed your name—so call Mrs. James Freeman, AT 3-6928.

THAT IS ALL

Down the Slope

Young Skiers Amble, Some Tumble Down Slick Slopes

By VI WHITE

Twenty-four youngsters stayed at the Oakland Ski Club lodge the weekend of March 24-25, for the club's annual Junior Weekend.

A busy schedule was planned for them including a balloon relay race held on Saturday at the Sugar Bowl. The little skiers carried balloons and made their way across the snow on skis.

Many spills made the whole affair exciting for them especially when their little hands lost grip of the balloons which the wind carried off to far places!

Ages ran from four to 14 years old and all enjoyed the Easter egg hunt at the lodge before dinner.

SUNDAY FOUND the group eager for the big race at the Bowl.

Forty racers signed up and the more advanced ran the full 18 gate course set along side the big rope tow, and the other classes each ran a smaller course on down the hill.

Trophies were presented on the porch after lunch. Those from Walnut Creek and Lafayette who received awards were Charlie White, second in the advanced class with a time of 43.2; Jerry Macpherson third in the Intermediate class with a time of 43; and in the Jr. class Jill Gross, 9.5, Pat Macpherson 11.2, and Tommy Macpherson 12.6. Mr. and Mrs.

Stanley "Mickie" Macpherson of Lafayette were proud of their three youngsters winning trophies that day.

Several members of the Nutski club spent the Easter week at their cabin near Tahoe. Skiing was done mostly at Squaw Valley.

MRS. JACK TURMAN and son John and his guest Bob Brockhorst; Mrs. Fred Allis and son and daughters; Mrs. Kirt Muller and son Keith and guest Sherry Davis; and Mrs. Ed Boero and daughters Nancy and Ann were the group.

One day they went to Mt. Rose Ski Bowl and Slide Mt. near Reno and visited with Mrs. Ernest Rowland, her mother Mrs. Golitz and son Herman and daughter Ann and guests Barney Howard and Art Dolby. The weather the whole week was beautiful although a small storm did bring snow during the Saturday before Easter.

The Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church held an Easter Week High School Conference at their grounds at Zephyr Pt. on Lake Tahoe last week.

The young people left by bus and sang many songs along the way. Reverend Jim Upshaw and Director of Youth Activities Dave Beamer accompanied the group.

Attending from Pleasant Hill High School were Bill and Al Locatelli, Cynthia Perry, Mary Priffle, and Linda and Loretta Warren; from Los Lomas High School, Barbara Lohse, Larry Nunnally, Pete Symington, Judy Filbert, Verna Abbie, Susan Bashford, Virginia Brown, Phyllis Belben, Joan Blackmore, Betty Casady, Carol Gass, Joyce Gill, Marge Johnson, Emily Jones.

SHELLEY JONES, Barbara Kaufman, Joyce Koeng, Barbara Logan, Bev Lucas, Sharon Madson, Mike McFeeley, Kathie McKee, Barbara Meier, Jucy Moore, Patrick Murphy, Helen Pringle, Mike Ratto, Linda Robinson, Sandy Shields, Pat Speetzen, Jim Symington, Larry Telford, Caroline Lee Trimble, Gay Turner, Sue Wallace, Rev. Lou Borghesani Did Much For Area School Athletics

By ERWIN MATTSON

The announcement recently made by Lou Borghesani that he plans to leave the area for a new business enterprise in Lake County surprised many, as Lou and his family have been pioneers of Lafayette.

Lou was instrumental in developing many things in the local area, but perhaps his greatest interests have been in the schools, ranging from grammar school through high school and East Contra Costa Junior College.

It was Lou who promoted the baseball bleachers and field at Lafayette School, and it was largely his efforts that raised funds for the construction of the first tennis courts.

AT ACALANES he was an avid sports follower and the school's most ardent rooter. He was one of the most active participants in the drive for funds which made the football lights possible.

The baseball field found him getting equipment and operating it himself free of charge to level and grade the field.

In addition he worked on the backstops and spent days building the dugouts. Here, again, he got most of the material donated and gave days of his own time.

Lou has worked at East Contra Costa Junior College the past several years, and he has done much there to promote athletics and facilities. He contributed a ball diamond that rates with the best in the circuit. As always, Lou has been an avid follower and probably the Junior College's most loyal rooter.

Many people talk a lot about what they are going to do and then never do it. Lou talked and then always did far more.

To say that Lou and "Babe" as his wife is known, along with his sons, Forrest and Bob, will be missed by the area is to put it mildly. Somehow they will always belong to the local area. I wish them every success in their new venture, but may their visits back home be many.

To know Lou is to love the guy. Not to know him is to miss one of the finer things of life—real, loyal friendship.

Another "member" of the Borghesani family who has been missed has been their dog, Galley, who recently passed on to dog heaven at the age of 17.

Galley "attended classes" with the boys at Lafayette School and then on to high school at Acalanes, where he was a prominent figure.

I SEE WHERE the High School Federation baseball rules committee plans to make it compulsory to wear a safety helmet while batting.

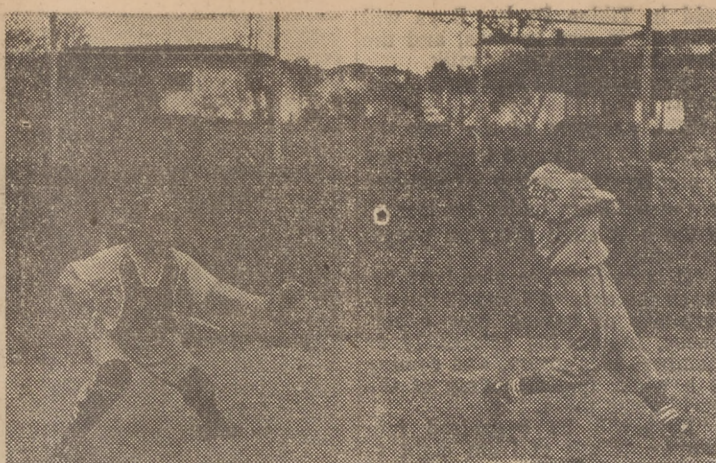

The mandatory rule, when placed in effect, will probably be a good one.

The mandatory part is important because many feel it is "sissy" to wear such protection. Actually, it will probably improve batting, as it will tend to give more confidence at the plate, with the knowledge that the "bean" is well protected.

There was a time in football

when a helmet was not a compulsory piece of equipment. Many played bareheaded, while others, in a display of great emotion, tore the helmet from their heads and flung it far and wide before returning to the battle!

Now rules prevent such action and a helmet must be worn, with the result that head injuries are few and far between.

KELLY PLAYERS of the Contra Costa County Babe Ruth League get a workout Saturday afternoon at the Las Lomas High School field. It's Dick Dodge at bat, and Terry Seiberlich behind the plate. In the league are more than 10 teams, including Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Lafayette.—Sun photo by Jim Gates

Mental Health Week Planned

The Central Contra Costa Mental Health Association has announced that the official dates of National Mental Health Week are April 29-May 5.

These are the dates during which the association will join with hundreds of other such groups in the nation to conduct membership and education campaigns.

There will be national television and radio programs and an active local schedule yet to be designed.

According to Walton Kirk, local president, the theme this year will be "The Mentally Ill Need Your Help," stressing the plight of the mentally ill in and out of hospitals, who are unable to get the treatment they need.

Kabuki Dancers To Be at Curran

An event of exceptional interest will take place Tuesday evening when the Azuma Kabuki Dancers and Musicians from Japan come to the Curran Theater, San Francisco, for an engagement that will extend through April 15, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday.

Exponents of a centuries-old art, the Kabuki Dancers and Musicians were brought to America in 1954 by S. Hurok for their initial appearance outside Japan. San Francisco was one of the few cities visited. Their program this year will offer many numbers not previously seen here.

Kabuki is a style or form of theater distinct from any other style, just as Elizabethan drama, Greek drama and modern drama all have their own distinctive style. It includes both dance and drama.

Comedy to Open Monday at Geary

Gene Lockhart stars in the Broadway comedy hit, "Reclining Figure," which will open Monday at the Geary Theater, San Francisco.

The Harry Kurnitz play is an amusing lampoon on the eccentrics, the swindlers and the culture-smitten who brawl and barter in the world of "art."

"Reclining Figure" is concerned with the complications set off when a young art dealer discovers a long-lost Renoir—painting of a reclining nude—in Paris. To break away from the dealer he represents, this young idealist undertakes to sell his discovery to a fabulous eccentric who has millions of dollars' worth of modern canvases and old masters in the vaults beneath his Pasadena mansion.

Christian Science

Availability today of God's healing and regenerative power will be brought out at services Sunday, at Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

Christ Jesus' healing of the "man with an unclean spirit" will be read from Mark including the following (1:27): "And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him."

Among the correlative passages to be read from Science and Health is the following (494:11): "It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love supplies all good."

Your Garden Shade Trees Are Natural Part of Outdoor Living

By THE GARDENER

THERE'S PROBABLY nothing so pleasant and comfortable as shade tree with spreading branches. Shade trees are a natural part of outdoor living in California.

Houses have literally been built around the famous Live Oaks of this state. Back yards, patios and terraces are made more charming by the presence of a cooling deciduous or evergreen shade tree.

Also, property is more attractive and more valuable when pleasantly landscaped with trees, and communities are more enjoyable to live in and to visit when trees are widely planted along streets and in yards and gardens.

YES, THERE ARE many reasons for planting shade trees, and when you make your selections of shade trees to plant in your locale, make sure you are picking the right types climate-wise.

For instance, says the California Association of Nurserymen, the hawthorn (Crataegus) makes a wonderful small shade tree for limited locations. One species, the C. Phaeopyrum (C. cordata) or Washington thorn has pinnate leaves that turn red and orange in fall and shiny red berries in December and January.

The northern red oak (Quercus borealis) is a part of the oak fam-

Women Voters Elect Seven New County Officers

At a recent annual meeting of the League of Women Voters held in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek, members elected new officers.

They are Mrs. John Holt, Concord, vice-president; Mrs. Andrew Kridl, Pleasant Hill, treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Lindemuth, Lafayette, Mrs. Richard MacCamy, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. V. L. Guthrie, Concord, two-year directors; and Mrs. John Selig, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. R. E. Thomas, Concord, one-year directors.

HOLD-OVERS from last year are Mrs. Paul Craven, Walnut Creek, president; Mrs. John Hunt, Lafayette, secretary, and Mrs. E. C. Litsinger and Mrs. Frank Lanning, Pleasant Hill, directors.

In addition to adopting a budget and making certain by-law changes, the membership voted to continue the study of county government for another year. This survey of government in Contra Costa County is being conducted jointly with the Richmond League of Women Voters.

TOPIC FOR the April units will be county education, a joint presentation of the education committee and the committee making a survey of county government.

The hostesses for the units are as follows: Tuesday, 8 p.m., Mrs. John Hunt, 1142 Brown Avenue, Lafayette; Wednesday, 8 p.m., Mrs. David Mox, 118 Patterson Boulevard, Pleasant Hill; Wednesday, 8 p.m., Mrs. Robert Bramson, 2161 Rosskelly Drive, Concord; Thursday, 1:30 p.m., Mrs. J. H. Lindemuth, 3421 La-Caminita, Lafayette.

BRAKE FLUID

Here's a good habit to get into: when you have your car lubricated each 1,000 miles, have the service man check the brake fluid level. It only takes a minute and it's one of the most important service points to have checked regularly.

Don Thinclads Face Devils Today

League Baseball Schedule Will Be Busy for Preps

Many teams have been on a non-competitive basis the early part of this week, due to the fact that Easter vacation cut into practice sessions and competitive schedules.

Things won't really get back into gear until next week, when it will be "business as usual."

Coaches and teams will really be bearing down from here on in, as championships are in the offing.

The schedule for the coming week is as follows:

TODAY—Interest will be centered at Concord, where the Acalanes Don track teams face the Mt. Diablo High cindermen.

The Dons figure to make it close in the lightweight meet, but it's Diablo with too much all-around strength in the varsity.

Meet time is 3:30 p.m.

MONDAY—It's league golf, with Pacifica the underdog in a match with the Acalanes divot-diggers at Orinda Country Club.

Tea-off time: 4 p.m.

TUESDAY—League baseball has a full day for everyone except Diablo, as the Devils draw the bye.

All games are set for 4 p.m.

Las Lomas travels to Acalanes. Interest is especially high here, due to traditional rivalry.

The Knights have been a surprise club, knocking over highly rated Pleasant Hill in their second league game.

The Dons appear to have a better than average club, so look for a good game here.

Pittsburg travels to Antioch in another traditional. A tossup, with the edge to Antioch on the basis of home diamond.

Pacifica plays at Pleasant Hill, and it would be the upset of upsets if the Pleasant Hill Rams didn't win.

It's been tough sledding for Pacifica, and promises to be even rougher, as the Rams are one of the circuit's top clubs.

In league tennis it's Las Lomas at Acalanes at 4 p.m.

WEDNESDAY—The Pleasant Hill swim team engages in a 3:30 triangular meet with Mt. Diablo and George Washington High at the Concord pool.

Diablo rates the favorite role, with the Rams and Washington paddling it out for the runner-up spot.

The Las Lomas track teams go to Pittsburg for a meet and will gain experience, with little chance of a win.

Pitt looks to be the favorite in both divisions for the county title, and just have too much.

Acalanes tackles the El Cerrito Gauchos in a dual meet at El Cerrito. Tab El Cerrito to win both varsity and Bess, with the Dons' best chance for an upset in the lightweights.

Both meets start at 3:30 p.m.

THURSDAY—It's another round of baseball, with Acalanes at Pleasant Hill in a tossup; Diablo a heavy favorite to rack Pacifica at the Concord municipal diamond, and Las Lomas traveling to Pittsburg in another tossup game.

Antioch draws the bye.

In tennis it's Acalanes at Pleasant Hill.

All games are at 4 p.m.

NEXT FRIDAY—Golf finds Acalanes in a practice round, with Piedmont furnishing the opposition at the Orinda Country Club. Time: 4 p.m.

Pleasant Hill and Antioch tangle in track in a 3:30 p.m. meet at Pleasant Hill. The Rams rate the favorite role here.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14—It's a big day for track, with the El Cerrito Relays in the offing.

Las Lomas and Acalanes plan to take part in the relay events, which attract Northern California's best.

Just 'One Small Sun Ad' Brings Realty 51 Calls!

If you're in the real estate business you have to advertise to acquaint your customers, both prospective and actual, of what is available on the market.

But if you are a wise businessman, you advertise where your dollar goes farthest—in other words, where you get your money's worth in results.

Kay Clay of the See Clay Realty Company, Concord, placed an ad for one run in the Walnut Creek Sun, Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun and Sun Shopping News for just $1.40 which offered a home for rent in the Danville area.

"This was the best money we ever spent," she said. "All our houses were rented out in three days after this one little ad appeared. We had 51 answers in all and then we stopped counting, but we're still getting calls as a result of the ad. Our advertising schedule will surely include The Sun."

Certainly real estate people should be able to judge on the ability of a classified ad to perform for them, and if it works for them, it can certainly bring returns for you.

Why not do as the See Clay Realty Company did? Advertise your merchandise in The Sun and Sun Shopping News, and then sit back and watch the results roll in.

Lists of Baseball Teams To Be Known Next Week

By MEL ALAMANO

There was no baseball clinic last Saturday due to Easter vacation.

This Saturday it resumes again for the boys and teams will be announced, and ticket money collected.

In the Coast League group, 8½ years to 10 years, Gord McNulty and his co-chairman Ed Schimbor, with their staff of coaches will start organizing teams we understand. Announcements for this group will be made and all boys should attend, along with fathers who wish to assist in the program.
